THE INDIAN SITUATION .- But one dispatch relating in any way to the Indian trouble was received to-day at the War Department and that merely related to the transportation of supplies. The situation at the Standing Rock Agency is fast improving, and the prospects at Rosebud Agency are somewhat brighter. Eight troops of cavalty from Fort Riley and four troops from Fort Wadsworth are on the way to the Rosebud Agency, and will probably arrive today. Yesterday was ration day at Rosebud, but not many of the dissatisfield Indians put in an appearance to get their rations, the ones claiming their quota being almost entirely those who are friendly to the whites. No serious trouble is now anticipated.

Acting Commissioner Belt of the In-dian Bureau has received a telegram from Agent Cooper of the Pine Ridge Agency, dated last night, stating that the loyal Indiana are burrying in for rations, while the turbulent ones are downbout coming in The presence of the military, the dispatch says, is having a subduing effect over the Indians. RULES MUST BE CHANGED

IF THE SENATE IS TO CARRY OUT THE REPUBLICAN PROGRAMME.

NEW YORK, Nov. 25 .- The Terbuna's Washington correspondent says: "It is already apparent to everybody here at the Capital that if the Sepate is to pass any measures but appropriation bills at the coming session it will be obliged to carry out at once the pledge which was signed last September by forty-three Republican members and moderalize its obsolete and antiquated rules of pro-cedure. Without the immediate introduction of the 'previous question,' or some equally efficient method of restoring the control of business to the majority, the passage of an Election Idli an Apportionment till, or any other piece of important political legislation, will be practically impossible.

"There has been from the start the strongest determination on the part of the 15 morrats to defeat the Federal Ejection bill by any means that might offer, and it is now becoming clear that an equally bitter fight will be made egainst the proposed bill for the appor-tionment of Depresentatives under the Eleventh Census. The anxiety of the Dimografic Senators to defent what they are preparing to denounce as a 'partisan' apportionment bill is even greater, perhaps, thun that to stille the present Senate measure in the interest of honest Congressional elections. Many Democrats do not believe that the Sen-ste will attempt seriously the passage of the Election bill, nor are they as solicitious now as they were before the last election about its operation, should

It become a law.
